

Dressing for the Occasion

Before reaching Fort William, some voyageurs would stop along the shore to clean up and prepare for the Great Rendezvous. A wash, haircut, a shave, a fresh shirt, and a neatly tied sash helped them look their best after months away. Some might even tuck bright dyed feathers in their felt hats.

